The number one thing I should do before I walk "on stage"

A large, empty light blue rectangular box, intended for a response to the question above. The box is outlined in a thin blue line and occupies most of the central area of the slide.

The 3 shifts that separate the top 5% of presenters and trainers and how I can use them in my next presentation

The best way to ooze credibility

What to do to have charisma and be approachable

My actions from today
